

Drum Roll Please!

News Release

We are pleased to announce the launch of our new website.

The new website follows our refreshed branding and refocused service portfolio which collectively position and reinforce Linea as the 'go to' company for the management of 'Complex Change' - encompassing Turnaround, Transformation and Continuous Improvement.

We believe potential is infinite & passionately support people, teams and organisations to achieve great things. Through sustained change and continuous improvement, we help our clients challenge convention and actively pursue excellence, overcoming complex operational, financial and cultural difficulties. Regardless of sector, starting point or complexity.

The website provides an overview of Linea Group and its subsidiary companies:

Linea Partners - Develops and implements complex change programmes...Click Here

Linea Advance - Develops people to advance internal expertise and support self-sufficiency...Click Here

Linea Associates - Provides professional resource to enhance client capacity and capability...Click Here

Linea Connect - Facilitates structured events for organisations and professionals to promote best practice...Click Here

The website has a modern and sleek look, which optimises full screen and adaptive device technology to provide the ultimate user-friendly experience. Our simple functionality enables ease of navigation throughout, enabling visitors to quickly access our company information, services offers, case studies and insights.

Visitors will be able to interact with us via the comments function within our news and insight pages, in addition they can stay informed by signing up to receive our regular newsletters. Furthermore, easy access to our social media sites enables users to share products and pages across their respective social networks.

We invite you to explore the new site and we welcome any thoughts or feedback you wish to share with us.