

Linea Appoints Chairman

News Release

Linea is pleased to announce the appointment of Restructuring, Turnaround & Transformation specialist, Mark Taylor as company Chairman.

Mark is a highly experienced Chairman providing leadership to boards of private companies and public sector organisations. He deals with a broad range of issues providing advice and support to both management teams and their stakeholders, as they navigate through restructuring, turnaround and transformation programmes.

Mark has over 25 years' experience working as a Chief Executive and Chairman, advising lenders, directors and owners of businesses which require turnaround or restructuring. His style and approach are to build trust and confidence with all stakeholders, with the ability to quickly grasp complex commercial and stakeholder issues, then recommend and deliver an effective outcome.

Mark will work closely with Linea's senior management team to further develop, and deploy its transition and growth strategy across the public & private sectors both within the UK & Internationally.

Mark Taylor Linea Chairman commented; 'I am delighted to be joining Linea Group as Chairman and look forward to work with the talented senior leadership team on taking the group to its next stage of development and growth delivering sustained superior performance for all of our clients'.

Ian Chambers Linea CEO commented; 'Mark and I have worked well together for a number of years, this appointment is a natural development of that relationship. Mark's insight and expertise will complement that of Linea's senior team and enable us to further support our expanding client base.'
